

April 6, 2019, 2019

Lewis Auditorium at Flagler College

SIBERIAN VIRTUOSI

Larisa Gabysheva & Stanislav Afanasenko, Directors

PROGRAM

Toccata & Fugue in D minor Johann Sebastian Bach

(1685 - 1750)

Scherzo Pyotr I. Tchaikovsky

(1840 - 1893)

Navarra Pablo de Sarasate

(1844 - 1908)

Hora Staccato Grigoras Ionica Dinicu

(1889 - 1949)

Vocalise Sergei Rachmaninoff

(1873 - 1943)

Rondo of Goblins Antonio Bazzini

(1818 - 1897)

Oblivion Astor Piazzola

(1921 - 1992)

Spanish Dance No. 1 Mañuel de Falla

((1876 - 1946)

Die Fledermaus (the Bat) Johann Strauss, Jr.

(1825 - 1899)

Hungarian Dance No. 1 Johannes Brahms

(1833 - 1897)

INTERMISSION

Summer (from the "Four Seasons") Antonio Vivaldi

((1678 - 1741)

Overture: The Marriage of Figaro Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart

(1756 - 1791)

Air on the G String Johann Sebastian Bach

(1685 - 1750)

Scherzo Felix Mendelssohn

(1809 - 1847)

Melodies from Ballet Hits Pyotr I. Tchaikovsky

(1840 - 1893)

Valse Triste, Op. 44 Jean Sibelius

(1865 - 1957)

Csardas Vittorio Monti

(1868 - 1922)

Romanian Rhapsody George Enescu

(1881 - 1955) (over>)

Libertango Astor Piazzola

(1921 - 1992)

Walk Along the Hollywood Valeri Ermoshkin

(1948 - present)

Sabre Dance Aram Khachaturian

(1903 - 1978)

Program Subject to Change)

Siberian Virtuosi, the State Ensemble of the Republic of Sakha (Yakutia) is an Ensemble of 11 violinists and a pianist, which is gaining an increasing popularity in Russia and around the world. Founded in 1994 as the Virtuosi of Yakutia, the Ensemble has given over 2000 concerts during the last 25 years. The group is known for their energy, unique arrangements, and level of virtuosity.

The Ensemble is also a winner of numerous international awards, including during an International Festival in St. Petersburg, Russia, "Music Week of Tours" in France, Grand Prix in Cremona, Italy, Grand Prix in Hungary, and many others. They are often on tour throughout the Russian Federation, giving performances in major cities.

Their 20- concert American debut in 2012 was followed by a tour of South America, including performances in Brazil, Argentina, Chile, Ecuador, and Colombia.

The Siberian Virtuosi appear by agreement with World Touring, LLC, Estero, Florida